

《美国教育与文化的对比与分析》

美国教育部分

I. True or False

Read the following statements and decide whether they are true (T) or false (F).

1. In the U.S., education is governed by the federal government instead of state or local governments .
2. After 12th grade, American students have two options for post-secondary education: vocational training or higher education.
3. Formal education in the U.S. consists of elementary, secondary and higher education.
4. In the United States, the words “college” and “university” are often used interchangeably.
5. Generally, associate’ s degrees are awarded from four-year colleges and universities in America.
6. American graduate studies are often available to students who have completed a bachelor’ s degree.
7. Stanford University is located in the San Francisco Peninsula and in the heart of Northern California’ s Silicon Valley.
8. Established as early as 1636, Yale University is the oldest university in America.

II. Multiple Choice

Choose the most appropriate answer to complete each of the following statements.

1. Of the follow subjects, _____ are NOT offered to elementary school students.
A. politics and business education
B. mathematics and language arts
C. science and social studies
D. music and physical education
2. Most American high school students study a foreign language, but _____ is not a foreign language choice.

- A. Spanish
- B. Russian
- C. French
- D. Chinese

3. At the end of high school, American students apply for college or university with the following qualifications except _____.

- A. their high school records
- B. recommendations from their high school teachers
- C. their GPA in Grade 12
- D. the impression they make during interviews at the university

4. In America, _____ has the authority to operate, fund, and in some respects control public colleges and universities within their boundaries.

- A. each individual state
- B. the Department of Education
- C. the American Federation of Labor
- D. the American Federation of Teachers

5. _____ offer low-cost education in the U.S. and they are two-year colleges in local communities that award an associate's degree.

- A. Universities
- B. Community colleges
- C. Institutes of technology
- D. vocational schools

6. Of the following universities in the United States, _____ does not belong to the Ivy League.

- A. Harvard University
- B. Princeton University
- C. Yale University

D. the University of Chicago

7. _____ are only available to students who have completed a bachelor' s degree.

A. Undergraduate studies

B. Graduate studies

C. Master' s degrees

D. Vocational studies

8. _____ was established in the year 1861. Situated in Boston, it is a private, independent and coeducational university.

A. Harvard University

B. Yale University

C. Stanford University

D. Massachusetts Institute of Technology

III. Explanation

Explain each item in your own words.

1. Parochial schools

2. K - 12 education system

3. community college

4. state colleges

5. the Ivy League

6. Harvard University

7. Massachusetts Institute of Technology

IV. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the words or expressions chosen from the box below. Change the form where necessary.

Box: A. private B. generalists C. specialists D. liberal arts E. bachelor's F. state G. critical thinking
H. master's I. generalization J. Majors

1. Many students attending university in the U.S. remain _____ throughout their four years of study, after which they receive a Bachelor degree.
2. American schools attach great importance to developing _____ instead of memorizing quantities of facts.
3. Each of the 50 states in the U.S. operates at least one _____ university and possibly several state colleges.
4. Religiously affiliated universities and colleges are _____ schools, which welcome students of all religions and beliefs.
5. American colleges and universities value _____ classes in subjects like history, English literature, and foreign language as well as mathematics, social and natural sciences.
6. _____ University is quite rewarding with its academic environment, reflected by the freshman retention rate of 98%.
7. _____ represent what students are most interested in learning to prepare for a career in a related field of study or to go on to a graduate school.
8. When it comes to _____ degrees in the United States, the three most common are BA, BS, and BFA.

V. Essay Questions

State your understanding of the following questions.

1. How do American colleges and universities admit students?
2. Compare the higher education in the U.S. and China.
3. What functions do American higher education institutions perform?

美国文化部分

I. True or False

Read the following statements and decide whether they are true (T) or false (F).

1. Hollywood has become a technological icon, representing glamour, fame, and success to people around the world.

2. Independence Day is celebrated on the 4th of July in the United States.
3. American sports leagues use a different type of schedule compared to other countries.
4. Jazz is characterized by a rhythmic style of music that often features spoken or chanted lyrics, which is accompanied by a range of cultural expressions.
5. Voice of America (VOA) is the most famous radio station for the dissemination of information and propaganda to foreign countries.
6. The launch of Myspace in 2003 marked the beginning of social media in the U.S.
7. The first major record label, Columbia Records, was founded in 1888.
8. The Academy Award also known as the Golden Globe.

II. Multiple Choice

Choose the most appropriate answer to complete each of the following statements.

1. Of the following newspapers, which one is published by the Times Mirror Company, and is physically huge, often covering 200 pages on Sunday?
 - A. The Wall Street Journal.
 - B. USA Today.
 - C. The Washington Post.
 - D. Los Angeles Times.
2. What do people typically do on Halloween?
 - A. Attend parades and festivals.
 - B. Go trick - or - treating and wear costumes.
 - C. Celebrate the harvest season.
 - D. family reunion
3. What are the major broadcast television networks in the U.S.?
 - A. NBC, CBS, ABC, Fox
 - B. Netflix, Hulu, Amazon Prime Video
 - C. ESPN, CNN, HBO

D. None of the above

4. Are all newspapers in the U.S. privately owned?

A. Yes, all of them are privately owned.

B. No, some are owned by the government.

C. No, some are owned by international media organizations.

D. No, some are owned by individual journalists.

5. Which social media platform is a name recently announced as the new parent company of Facebook by CEO Mark Zuckerberg in October 2021?

A. Facebook

B. Twitter

C. Instagram

D. Meta

6. What significant impact did the Pilgrims have on American history?

A. They introduced many of the sports popular in America today.

B. They were exclusively responsible for the creation and celebration of Thanksgiving.

C. They established English colonies in America and inspired the Thanksgiving tradition.

D. They founded the major universities in America.

7. What is the name of the famous landmark in Hollywood that draws tourists and movie fans each year?

A. Universal Studios Hollywood

B. The Hollywood Walk of Fame

C. The TCL Chinese Theatre

D. The Hollywood Sign

8. What distinguishes The New York Times among American newspapers?

A. It is known for its entertainment coverage.

B. It primarily targets lower - income groups.

- C. It is renowned for its editorial quality and news coverage.
- D. It focuses exclusively on international news.

III. Explanation

Explain each item in your own words.

1. Thanksgiving
2. Independence Day
3. the National Basketball Association (NBA)
4. Super Bowl
5. Voice of America (VOA)
6. Broadway
7. Hollywood
8. the Academy Award

IV. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the words or expressions chosen from the box below. Change the form where necessary.

Box: A. hip - hop B. U.S. Open C. blues D. LinkedIn E. Washington Post F. Digital streaming services
G. Twitter H. YouTube I. jazz J. professional

1. The National Hockey League is the premier _____ ice hockey league in North America.
2. The _____ is a video - sharing platform, now owned by Google, and is the second most popular search engine in the United States.
3. _____ has disrupted traditional sales models for both physical and digital music in recent years.
4. _____ is one of the most prestigious tennis tournaments in the world held annually in New York City.
5. Originating from African American and Latinx communities in the Bronx, _____ is a music genre known for rhyming lyrics and musical accompaniment.
6. The _____ is a social media platform popular for professional networking and job seeking.

7. Country music was developed in the southern U.S. in the early 20th century, with roots in traditional folk music, spirituals, and the _____.
8. The _____ is a popular American newspaper established in 1877, known for its significant political coverage.

V. Essay Questions

State your understanding of the following questions.

1. What are the major functions of American media?
2. In what way has American popular culture influenced global culture?
3. Some Chinese young people tend to enjoy the Western holidays, such as Christmas Day and Valentine' s Day. What is your opinion on that?

（注：文档部分内容可能由 AI 生成）