

《英国历史与政治的探究》

历史部分

I. True or False

Read the following statements and decide whether they are true (T) or false (F).

1. People in different parts of Britain like to use the name England to refer to their country.
2. The island of Great Britain is geographically and historically divided into two parts, known as England and Scotland.
3. In terms of population and area, Northern Ireland is the second smallest part of Britain.
4. The West End of London includes many tourist attractions, as well as business and administrative headquarters.
5. The Romans constructed towns and cities in England which prospered far longer than any previous settlements on the island.
6. In the process of resisting the Vikings, the seven Anglo - Saxon kingdoms in England gradually became united under Julius Caesar.
7. The Great Charter is regarded as the foundation of the British constitutionalism.
8. By the end of the 19th century, Britain became the greatest imperial power in the world.

II. Multiple Choice

Choose the most appropriate answer to complete each of the following statements.

1. The two main islands of the British Isles are _____.
A. Great Britain and Ireland
B. Great Britain and Scotland
C. Great Britain and Wales
D. Great Britain and England
2. All of the following are London' s landmarks EXCEPT _____.

A. Buckingham Palace

B. the Royal Scottish Museum

C. St. Paul' s Cathedral

D. Big Ben

3. The capital and main commercial and financial center of Wales is _____.

A. Belfast

B. Edinburgh

C. London

D. Cardiff

III. Explanation

Explain each item in your own words.

1. the British Isles

2. the Roman Conquest

3. the Anglo - Saxon settlement

4. the Norman Conquest

5. the Magna Carta

6. the Wars of Roses

7. the “Glorious Revolution”

8. Victorian Britain

IV. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the words or expressions chosen from the box below. Change the form where necessary.

Box: A. Northern Ireland B. West End C. landmass D. Vikings E. Julius Caesar F. Tudors G. kilts H . Clyde I. Wessex J. Thames

1. The island of Great Britain accounts for more than 90% of the country' s _____.

2. The River _____, the second longest and the most important river in Britain, originates in southwestern England and flows to London and empties into the North Sea.
3. The Irish Sea separates _____ from England and Wales on the east and southeast respectively.
4. Tourists from all over the world come to enjoy the beauty of Scottish fantastic scenery, to drink Scotch whisky and to see Scotsmen wearing _____ and playing bagpipes.
5. The _____ of London includes many of the city's major tourist attractions, as well as business and administrative headquarters.
6. The recorded history about England started in 55 BC when _____ and his Roman troops invaded the island.
7. In the 8th century, the _____ from the Scandinavian countries of Northern Europe, Norway and Denmark in particular, began to attack the English coast.
8. Under the rules of the _____, England became a national state with an efficient centralized government and developed into a modern country.

V. Essay Questions

State your understanding of the following questions.

1. Can you explain why the word “English” can be offensive if used wrongly to refer to those from the three nations other than England?
2. What was the significance of the Bourgeois Revolution in the 17th century?
3. Explain the rise and fall of the British Empire.

政治部分

I. True or False

Read the following statements and decide whether they are true (T) or false (F).

1. The importance of the British monarchy can be seen in its effect on advising the government.
2. The House of Commons is at the center of the British political system.
3. The British Parliament operates on a multi - party system.
4. The United Kingdom is a federal state.
5. As a revising chamber, the House of Lords is expected to complement the House of Commons.

6. The members of the House of Commons are appointed rather than elected.
7. Cabinet members are chosen by the Prime Minister from various political parties in Parliament.
8. The Commonwealth of Nations is a voluntary association, and most of the Commonwealth of Nations were former British colonies, or dependencies of these colonies.

II. Multiple Choice

Choose the most appropriate answer to complete each of the following statements.

1. The British monarchy is known as _____.
 - A. constitutional monarchy
 - B. congressional monarchy
 - C. governmental monarchy
 - D. inherited monarchy
2. The British government is characterized by a division of powers between three of the following branches EXCEPT the _____.
 - A. judiciary
 - B. legislature
 - C. monarchy
 - D. executive
3. Which of the following about the House of Commons is NOT true?
 - A. The House of Commons is the lower house of the Parliament of Britain.
 - B. The House of Commons is far less powerful than the House of Lords.
 - C. The Commons consists of 650 members, who are known as “Members of Parliament” .
 - D. The members of the House of Commons are elected every 5 years.
4. The Prime Minister is not _____.
 - A. the leader of the majority party in Parliament
 - B. described as “first among equals”

C. the head of government

D. the head of state

5. Which of the following is NOT the responsibility of the British government?

A. developing policy

B. implementing policy

C. debating current issues

D. drafting laws

6. The Cabinet is appointed by _____.

A. the House of Commons

B. the people

C. the Prime Minister

D. the Queen

7. How often are general elections held in Britain?

A. Every two years.

B. Every four years.

C. Every five years.

D. It is up to the parties in government.

8. The policies of the Conservative Party are characterized by pragmatism and _____.

A. government intervention

B. nationalization of enterprises

C. social reform

D. a belief in individualism

III. Explanation

Explain each item in your own words.

1. Constitutional monarchy
2. the British Constitution
3. the British Parliament
4. the House of Commons
5. the House of Lords
6. the Conservative Party
7. the Labor Party
8. the British Cabinet

IV. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the words or expressions chosen from the box below. Change the form where necessary.

Box: A. Cabinet B. Parliament C. Commonwealth D. constituency E. Monarch F. Constitution G. Commons H. seats I. Prime Minister J. Liberal Democrats

1. Although the _____ is the head of state, their power is largely symbolic.
2. The government is made up of the Prime Minister, the _____ ministers and assistants to the ministers.
3. The British _____ regulates how the country is governed and ensures that the government acts at all times within the rule of law.
4. The British _____ is the law - making body of Britain.
5. The party which holds the majority of _____ in the House of Commons forms the government.
6. The _____ is the leader of the majority party in Parliament.
7. The candidate who wins the most votes in each _____ becomes a Member of Parliament.
8. The _____ is not a political union of any sort, and its member states have full autonomy to manage their own internal and external affairs.

V. Essay Questions

State your understanding of the following questions.

1. What kind of public image does the Conservative Party have in Britain?

2. Why are independent candidates unlikely to win in the general election?
3. What is the Commonwealth of Nations?

（注：文档部分内容可能由 AI 生成）