

《英国经济与教育部分的解析与探讨》

经济部分

I. True or False

Read the following statements and decide whether they are true (T) or false (F).

1. Britain was the first industrialized nation in the world.
2. The Industrial Revolution started in the second half of the 18th century, and it may be defined as the application of electricity to manufacturing.
3. East India Company, which was the most famous trading company, had a trading monopoly in India and parts of East Asia.
4. When the Industrial Revolution was accomplished in Britain, many new cities appeared, such as Manchester, Leeds, and Cardiff.
5. Thatcher's revolution turned out to be a great success in dealing with all the British economic and social problems.
6. Blair made the Bank of England independent in order to separate politics from economic policy.
7. The British beef industry was crippled by BSE in 1996, leading to a ban on beef exports until 2006.
8. The London Stock Exchange, located in the City, is the world's largest center for trading stocks and bonds.

II. Multiple Choice

Choose the most appropriate answer to complete each of the following statements.

1. _____ did not belong to the inventions of the Industrial Revolution in Britain.
A. The printing press
B. The Spinning Mule
C. Spinning Jenny
D. Power loom
- 2.

All of the following are the reasons why Industrial Revolution took place in Britain EXCEPT _____

- A. a huge market
- B. the Hundred Years' War
- C. colonies in India
- D. the Enclosure Movement

3. Of the following practices, _____ did not belong to Thatcher's social welfare reform.

- A. reducing child benefits
- B. shortening the period of unemployment benefits
- C. reducing unemployment
- D. lowering old - age pensions

4. The Blair government was successful in all the following aspects EXCEPT _____.

- A. reducing inequality
- B. reducing unemployment
- C. limiting government spending
- D. keeping inflation under control

5. Britain is so heavily populated that it produces only about _____ of the food needs.

- A. 70%
- B. 40%
- C. 60%
- D. 50%

6. Britain has all the following important fishing areas EXCEPT _____.

- A. the English Channel
- B. the North Sea
- C. the sea area around the Irish coast

D. the sea area between Britain and Ireland

7. The car industry in Britain is mostly _____.

A. state - owned

B. joint - venture

C. privately - owned

D. foreign - owned

8. Canary Wharf is home to major financial institutions such as Barclays Bank, Citi Group and HSBC, as well as _____.

A. the London Stock Exchange

B. the British Financial Services Authority

C. the Bank of England

D. Lloyd' s of London

III. Explanation

Explain each item in your own words.

1. the East India Company

2. the Enclosure Movement

3. Spinning Jenny

4. Thatcherism

5. Tony Blair' s “Third Way”

6. Bank of England

7. London Stock Exchange

8. City of London

IV. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the words or expressions chosen from the box below. Change the form where necessary.

Box: A. Labor Party B. mechanized C. Glasgow D. Corus Group E. Shell F. textile G. Conservative Party H. steel I. banking J. Birmingham

1. The Industrial Revolution in Britain began in the _____ industry and was marked by a series of important inventions.
2. With the Industrial Revolution in Britain, many new cities appeared, such as Manchester, Leeds, _____ and Sheffield.
3. In 1945, the _____ carried out drastic reforms and laid the foundation for the post - war social and economic development in Britain.
4. In 1979, the _____ won the general election and Margaret Thatcher was the first woman to become Prime Minister of Britain.
5. Britain' s agriculture is intensive, highly _____ and efficient by European standards, with less than 1.6% of the labor force engaged in agricultural activities.
6. Among the top British companies, there are three engaged from the energy sector: _____, British Petroleum (BP) and British Gas (BG).
7. _____, the biggest steel maker in Britain, and the successor of British Steel Corporation, is the biggest steel maker in Europe.
8. There are over 500 banks with offices in London, and it is the leading international center for _____, insurance, Eurobonds, foreign exchange trading and energy futures.

V. Essay Questions

State your understanding of the following questions.

1. Why was the U.K. once called the “factory of the world” ?
2. What were the major causes of Britain' s relative economic decline after World War II?
3. Why do developed economies like Britain encourage the development of the service industry?

教育部分

I. True or False

Read the following statements and decide whether they are true (T) or false (F).

1. The British monarch enacted laws to require all children to attend primary school throughout the 19th century.

2. The appearance of the Open University marked a totally new form of self - education in Britain.
3. King' s College London has immensely helped people across the globe to make a cultural and socio - economic change.
4. Oxford University and Cambridge University are sometimes referred to collectively as Oxbridge.
5. Under the British school system, all students study English, maths, sciences, a humanity and a foreign language.
6. GCSE examinations mark the beginning of compulsory education in the U.K.
7. Independent schools in Britain do not receive their primary funding from the government; they are financed through tuition fees and private investments.
8. The National Curriculum is not compulsory for independent schools in Britain, so few choose to follow it in practice.

II. Multiple Choice

Choose the most appropriate answer to complete each of the following statements.

1. Two parallel school systems in the U.K. are _____.
 - A. national and dependent
 - B. state and dependent
 - C. state and independent
 - D. regional and state
2. _____ education begins in the U.K. at age 5 and continues until age 11, comprising key stages one and two under the U.K. educational system.
 - A. Primary school
 - B. Secondary school
 - C. Junior School
 - D. High school
3. What is the main purpose of the National Curriculum, introduced in 1988?
 - A. To provide religious education
 - B. To standardize the subjects taught across the U.K.

C. To prepare students for vocational careers

D. To segregate students based on ability

4. Partially funded by central government grants, most of the British universities receive their remaining funds from all the following sources EXCEPT _____.

A. tuition fees

B. loans

C. Donations

D. corporate contributions

5. To be admitted to the Open University, one needs _____.

A. some educational qualifications

B. no educational qualifications

C. the General Certificate of Education - Advanced Level

D. the General Certificate of Secondary - Education

6. What distinguishes grammar schools in Britain?

A. They are only for adult education

B. They are solely for vocational training

C. They select students based on academic ability

D. They do not offer A - levels

7. Which of the following statements is not true?

A. A British bachelor' s degree normally takes three years to complete.

B. Postgraduate courses in the U.K. education system are very intensive.

C. A PhD research degree in the U.K. can take between 2 and 7 years.

D. A master' s degree typically takes 2 years to complete in U.K.

8. _____ is popularly recognized as the oldest university in the English - speaking world:

A. Cambridge University

- B. Oxford University
- C. University of Bristol
- D. Imperial College London

III. Explanation

Explain each item in your own words.

1. the National Curriculum
2. Comprehensive Schools
3. Grammar Schools
4. The “sixth form”
5. General Certificate of Education Advanced Level (A - Level)
6. the Open University
7. Oxford University
8. Cambridge University

IV. Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the words or expressions chosen from the box below. Change the form where necessary.

Box: A. A - levels B. Postgraduate C. compulsory D. multidisciplinary E. “sixth form” F. Further education G. examine H. residential colleges I. academic freedom J. secondary education

1. British education system is run by the state. Primary and secondary education is _____.
2. At age 11, children transition to _____, which lasts until they are at least 16.
3. _____ are state examinations and are recognized by all U.K. universities and by institutions worldwide.
4. _____ in the U.K. makes you more employable and enhances your career prospects.
5. University College London is a leading _____ university with students from nearly 150 different countries.
6. The _____ is a two - year educational period where students often specialize in three or four subjects before entering higher education.

7. _____ courses at British universities are designed for students who have completed their undergraduate studies and are looking for advanced knowledge in a particular field.
8. British universities are known for their _____, which allows them to govern their own academic affairs and curricula.

V. Essay Questions

State your understanding of the following questions.

1. What do you know about British educational systems?
2. Explain the role of GCSE in British education systems?
3. In what way do British universities enjoy complete academic freedom?

（注：文档部分内容可能由 AI 生成）